

Rules for June Classic Jackpot Show

All animals must be stalled in pens or on tie rail.

Heifers cannot show in both the breeding and market class.

Enter the day of the show. No Pre-Registration is available. Entries can be paid in CASH or CHECK during registration. No refunds on entry fees

Classes broken by weight, determined by show committee

No animals exhibiting signs of fungus, infection, or other contagious health issues will be allowed to remain in the barns. At first sign of an issue, the show committee will inspect and handle with their best judgement, asking the exhibitor to take the animal to their trailer if possible, or to remove animal from the grounds.

Heifers and steers must be halter broke. Animals that are unmanageable will be asked to leave. Heifers must be under 24 months of age as of the show date.

Steers, lambs, hogs and goats must be of the feeder type and kind.

If an exhibitor has more than one animal in the same class, they may have assistance from another show exhibitor.

Management will check stall area prior to the exhibitor leaving the premises for stall fee refund.

The Judge's decision is final.

Integrity is expected.
